Who are the 72?... Saints Matthew, Mark and Luke all tell us how Jesus sent the Twelve Apostles out to preach but it is only St Luke who tells us of these 72 disciples. This number is symbolic; in Genesis chapter 10 there appears a list of Noah's descendants – some 72 names – from whom all the tribes of the earth are descended. St Luke is using this 72 to indicate that every single person has the responsibility to be a disciple. He tells us Jesus gave the 72 some specific instructions: Do not to be distracted or take material possessions with them, depend on those to whom they were sent for their living. Their mission was to bring peace, healing and encouragement to those to whom they were sent. Jesus warns them not to let their heads be turned by their achievements but rather to take joy in the fact that their names are written in heaven. St Luke reminds us that we have the same mission and this mission is not a matter of choice but is essential to the Christian life. So let us take up our task, seeing ourselves as those 72 disciples and rejoice that, as with them, devils submit and we too bring peace, healing and encouragement to those we encounter. ...We are!

Save the date- Spanish Evening at Melling Institute probably 12th October.

Those who experienced the Greek evening which was held to raise funds for our Syrian family will remember excellent food and fun. We are having a Spanish evening to help support the Olive Branch food Bank in Lancaster who are doing sterling work specifically in God's name in Lancaster. We collect food for them but sometimes it useful to have funds to call upon when needed. The Greek evening sold out very quickly so if you would like to get your name down for tickets in advance there will be a list at the back of Church for a couple of weeks.

THIS YEAR CASTLERIGG MANOR CELEBRATES ITS 50TH ANNIVERSARY as the home of Lancaster Diocesan Youth service. The work of the Youth service is broader than the Castlerigg Experience. Their work within the Diocese involves schools, youth faith groups, liaising with chaplains, organising the youth involvement in the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes. More recently there has been engagement with the World Youth Days as well as the Rome synod on Youth. The Youth Service must be flexible; ready to change and grow in response to the demands of the times but never compromising the call to serve the Gospel of Christ. On JULY 7th there will be a celebration of thanksgiving including a BBQ at Castlerigg at 4pm attended by Bp Paul. There is no charge but the Youth Service ask that people let them know they are coming for catering purposes(team@castleriggmanor.co.uk <mailto:team@castleriggmanor.co.uk> or tel 01768772711.
