St John Henry Newman...

This weekend, in Rome, Pope Francis will make John Henry Newman a saint. Newman is widely considered to be one of the most significant figures of the 19th century. This canonisation is the conclusion of his cause to sainthood. His cause was opened in 1958, he was declared Venerable by Pope Saint John Paul II in 1991 and Pope Benedict XVI declared him Blessed, in Cofton Park near Birmingham, as the culmination of his visit to the UK in September 2010. At that Mass Pope Benedict said that Newman: tells us that our divine Master has assigned a specific task to each one of us, a 'definite service', committed uniquely to every single person... The definite service to which Blessed John Henry was called, involved applying his keen intellect and his prolific pen to many of the most pressing 'subjects of the day'. His insights into the relationship between faith and reason, into the vital place of revealed religion in civilised society, and into the need for a broadly-based and wide-ranging approach to education were not only of profound importance for Victorian England, but continue today to inspire and enlighten many all over the world. We pray that St John Henry's prayers will help each of us discern our definite service that we may continue in our desire to serve the Lord each day. (St John Henry's feast day is 9th October) ...pray for us!

Mgr Roderick Strange will give a talk at St Mary's Church Hall in Morecambe on the evening of 5 November on St John Henry Newman. This is an open event for the Deanery, and all are welcome. Mgr Strange is former rector of the Pontifical Beda College and has now been appointed as Professor in Theology at St Mary's University, Twickenham. He is also a member of the Theology Faculty at the University of Oxford.

DON'T KNOW WHAT TO SAY! It is not often that I am stuck for words; but I am. And I have been thinking for some time how best to express my thanks...all I can say is that I am moved and full of gratitude for your kindness and generosity, and for giving me such a send-off. I will endeavour to return your good-will by remembering you with affection in my prayers. My parents express their most sincere thanks to you also. They were so touched by your warmth and evident care for me. They are having Mass offered for your intentions. THANK YOU!
