No longer lost... Sometimes we can feel as though we are just going through the motions of living a proper Christian life. Perhaps in such moment today's Gospel can help us. When we walk in through the doors of the church, we are taking steps to try to get a fresh glimpse of Jesus. Our walking through the church door can be like Zacchaeus climbing the sycamore tree to get a good view as Jesus passes by. Like Zacchaeus we don't expect Jesus to notice us. We certainly don't expect Jesus to single us out from the crowd; but discreetly, He does. He stands beneath the tree we have climbed and He calls us by name; He invites us to join Him. He wants us to be at one with Him, and with ourselves. When we feel lost in a crowd, Jesus is there, watching and waiting for us to come to Him. If Jesus seems distant to us, it's usually because we are not hearing His call or because other things are getting in the way and blocking our view. Let's ask Jesus to rid us of any distractions that prevent us from seeing and listening to Him.... for today salvation has come to this house!

Archbishop Michael Bowen RIP: We have received a message from Archbishop Wilson, via Bp Paul, as follows:

"Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, it is with great sadness that I have to inform you that Archbishop Michael Bowen died at 12.30 am, 17th October, at St Peter's Home, Vauxhall. I saw Archbishop Michael on Tuesday evening in St Thomas' Hospital and although somewhat tired he was in good spirits. He was a faithful servant of the Church and especially of the two dioceses of which he was the chief shepherd. Please do pray for him and his family. With prayers, yours sincerely in Christ, +John"

The funeral arrangements: Sunday 3rd November: 5pm: Reception into St George's Cathedral 6pm: Cathedral Mass: Archbishop Kevin McDonald to preside. 8pm: Vigil Service, after which the Cathedral will close.
